

It's going down now

[Intro: Yumi Kawamura]

Baby, baby, baby, ba-baby (x4)

[Verse 1: Lotus Juice]

It's those unintelligent monsters, ain't it?

What are they thinking? Please explain it

Don't really need this crap, can't waste time

What I possess can't copy and paste

I'm doing it better, never settling for another regular

Letter to my enemies, hey, I'm telling ya

Breaking you down to the level of molecular

[Verse 2: Lotus Juice]

Better be wise when you're choosing battles

It's mostly babbles

You know one of those big time shady foe foes

Ain't worth fighting for

Drop these bars in my sleep

And a few more tricks up my sleeve

It's way too late for you to leave now

(Get ready)

[Chorus: Azumi Takahashi]

Disturbing the peace

Look into my eyes

Now tell me the things

You blabbing about behind my back

The tenacity

I hold it's hard to break down

It's too late for apologies

It's going down now

[Verse 3: Lotus Juice]

You're thirsty for blood
Actually craving for love
What you only want is dub
Greed makes you go numb
Purposefully blocking good thoughts
Hey, please doctor, doctor
He's about to be that patient
'Cause I'm about to knock him out cold
(Bring him back, please)

[Verse 4: Lotus Juice]

Whole lotta moves I make on you like dance floor
And during this beat down
You prolly wish that you can fast forward (Oh)
Don't you worry about it
I'll save some room for your last words
After I do this, do that, and the third

[Chorus: Azumi Takahashi]

[Bridge: Azumi Takahashi]
Some things may break me
But always get back up
New perspective gained
From all of the pain and stress
And when I do come back
I'm stronger than ever before
So kneel down

[Chorus: Azumi Takahashi]
